DATTO STOPS AL DE ROSE IN THIRD ROUND

Right Puts Al Down And Out

Filipino Tumbles De Rose For Count Of Nine In First

RIO, ROMEO, BROWN AND JENNINGS WIN

By ED. FEITZ

Bill Jolly held his weekly punch party last night at Jolly Bowl and Al De Rose of Indianapolis passed out in the third when Johnny Datto, the cunning Filipino, landed a right to the jaw that teemed with knockout drops. It was fully a minute before Al recuperated from the blow. Prior to his victory last night Datto had scored knockouts here over U. S. Carpentier and Jack McFarland.

Datto did not lose any time going to work relentlessly when the bout opened, and although De Rose landed left hooks to the jaw and stomach, Johnny knocked him down in a neutral corner with a right to the jaw. He got up and weathered the round. In the second session De Rose fought from a crouch and Datto did not take any chances injuring his hands on De Rose's elbows.

The end was evident when the third started, as the relentless Filipino began hewing at the Italian-American as soon as the bell sounded. He waltzed De Rose backward, then drove him into a corner. He never let De Rose out of the corner. Datto whipped two or five hard lights to the body to the head, then hooked to the stomach, stepped back and sent over the right that knocked De Rose out.

Rights Win Decision

Frankie Rio of Cleveland captured the decision from Patsy Gallagher of Pittsburgh in the six-round semi-final. For four rounds the featherweights fought hard, fast and even, but they were mated so evenly almost every damaging blow was blocked. Rio crowded Gallagher in the last two rounds and landed effectively a right to the chin that shook up Gallagher and he got the decision.

Romeo Pacelli of New Castle won the award over Jackie Coogan of Canton, O. The featherweights boxed six hard rounds. Romeo shook Coogan from head to toe in the second and in the third Coogan slipped to the floor and from his actions it appeared as though he had been injured slightly.

Coogan Opens Up

Coogan opened up with a furious assault in the fourth that worried Pacelli and for a brief space of time "straight, rules" prevailed and everything went except kicking. Romeo won the fifth and in the sixth he floored Coogan with a left to the jaw for a count of nine, but he finished the fight.

Warren Farrow, New Castle, fought Steve Brown, Elyria, in the second four-round bout. The light-heavyweights pleased the crowd with their grimaces, postures and swings. Whenever Steve desired he let his left massage Warren's face, but Farrow didn't mind this, as he swung from all angles, but all his punches landed on Steve's back and Brown took the decision.

Jennings Wins Bout

Johnny Dougherty of the West Side was knocked out in the first round by Johnny Jennings of the East Side. Jennings, a southpaw, put a left hook to the stomach that sent Dougherty down. He tried to beat the count of Referee George Chip and was still down when Chip counted ten. The referee waved Dougherty to his corner when he arose.

The first three bouts were refereed by George Chip and Red Robinson officiated in the last two. Tommy Jones and Chauncey Davis were the judges and Pete Capitola kept time. Larry Gent was the deputy of the boxing commission. The crowd was not as large last night as usual, owing to counter attractions.

ROCCO TO MEET SEKYRA AGAIN

Ellwood Fighter In Good Condition For Wednesday Night Bout

Emmett Rocco, Ellwood City and Joe Sekyra, Dayton, O., will fight a return 10 round bout Wednesday night at Youngstown. Emmett is training in his South Mill street gymnasium and according to those who have watched him step and punch he is in far better shape than when he lost the decision to Sekyra.

Sekyra is one of the fast 180 pounders in boxing and while he is a better boxer than Rocco, the latter believes he has a chance to win, providing he can lay a right against a vulnerable point.

Wisconsin-Iowa Battle Saturday

Big Ten Conference Interested In Coming Clash Of Two Fine Grid Teams

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Big ten football is just one climax after another. With the fans still gasping over the result of the Iowa-Ohio State affair at Columbus last week, the decks were being cleared today for another titular struggle at Iowa City, Ia., this coming Saturday.

It will bring together in the outstanding western classic Burt Ingwersen's undefeated Iowa eleven and Glenn Thistlethwaite's once-tied but also unbeaten Wisconsin horde. Like the Iowa-Ohio game it is another battle that means everything or nothing to the opposing contenders.

If the Hawkeyes win they will have practically clinched the big ten championship leaving only the oft-beaten Michigan eleven still to face. If the Badgers win they will be the sole undefeated team in the conference and in a fair way to claim title honors for themselves. Wisconsin has Minnesota yet to play.

Gorman Is Kayoed By George Godfrey

(International News Service)

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 13.—George Godfrey, the "Black Panther" of Leiperville" had firmly convinced Philadelphians today that he is very much in the race for the heavyweight crown by his three-round knockout of Bud Gorman of Chicago in a hectic battle here last night.

Godfrey played with Gorman for the first round, then knocked him down with a left jab, half-push. Dropped him four times again in the third, once knocking the Chicago battler out of the ring. Gorman scrambled back with a bit of help only to go down again, then his seconds tossed in the towel. Godfrey weighed 240 pounds to Gorman's 204.

UNDER CLASS TEAMS TO BATTLE

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 13.—Freshman and sophomore football players have started practice sessions for the annual under-class game to be played some time before the Thanksgiving recess.

Stephen "Jiggs" Havrilla, varsity fullback, and Harold "Huddie" Forsha, varsity end, will coach the sophomore team. The first-year men has not tp select a coach from the varsity squad.

Some 20 aspirants for the fresh team reported for workouts last week. Smalley, Cochran, West, Reiber, Meredith and Ledger, all former high school players of ability, will give the first-year outfit an experienced team.

On the sophomore outfit, Mayor, Kennedy, Baird, Cameron, Lewis, McCreery, Anderson, H. Miller and K. Miller will give the second-year team another batch of former high school players with ability.

Both teams will have plenty of weight, the freshmen boasting 240 pounds in the person of Cochran at tackle, and the sophs having over 200 pounds in K. Miller at guard. Other players on each team weigh nearly 190 pounds. Basefield men on both aggregations will be light and fast judging by the candidates who have already reported.

Beaver Falls Will Bring Strong Team To Franklin Field

New Castle High Football Team Faces Acid Test On Coming Saturday

Garda, Hendrickson And Walton Threats In Beaver Falls Line-Up

By "BUGS" WALTHER

Beaver Falls High school football team, undefeated, strong contenders for the W. P. I. A. L. championship this year, will invade Franklin field on Saturday afternoon to battle New Castle High gridders.

The coming grid conflict here ranks as a "natural" due to the fact that both teams are badly in need of the victory that lies dormant in the confines of Franklin field at the present writing. If Beaver Falls defeats New Castle they will have a clean sweep to the schoolboy title in western Pennsylvania. If New Castle defeats Beaver Falls the committee in deciding the winners will be forced to overlook that 0-0 deadlock with the powerful Washington High team, and there you are.

Don't be misled into thinking that New Castle High is going to have something "soft" this week. Beaver Falls has defeated Aliquippa, Monaca, Rochester, Butler, Ellwood City and Jeannette. Furthermore, their goal line has not heard the tread of enemy cleats all year. If New Castle takes out one or two touchdowns they will be very fortunate. The same holds true for Beaver Falls.

In Garda and Hendrickson the Beaver Falls team sports two halfbacks who will match for prowess anything that Coach Bridenbaugh can offer, according to the dope.

Walton Is Some Lineman

It is highly interesting to note that either Garda or Hendrickson has tallied at least one touchdown in each of the six games won by the valley team this year. Another Beaver Falls player who will bear watching is "Pat" Walton, captain and star tackle. Walton, a ponderous big fellow, has been quite prominent in the games to date and is one of the principal reasons for the success of the Heckathorne coached machine this season.

New Castle fans who witnessed the 20 to 6 victory of the New Castle team over Beaver Falls last year in that post-season affair will recall that this man Walton was perhaps 75 per cent of the Beaver Falls line.

The New Castle team had a day off on Monday and attended the Geneva-Allegheny game at Beaver Falls. Today the locals started practice with zest. There is plenty of room for improvement on the red and black team, notwithstanding the fact that they smothered the Greensburg eleven, and Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh intends to smooth out the defects.

The locals looked real classy as they battled the Greensburg team into submission, but they will have to be better than good to knock the cake off the chin of the valleyites.

Don't forget that Saturday is Rooster Day at Franklin field. They sure picked a fine game to boost. A big program is being arranged.

Harry Fay Who Fought Perotta Was Among Vestris Passengers

Harry Fay, a boxer of Charleroi, listed among the passengers of the ill-fated Vestris which sank off the Virginia coast is well known here as he fought George Perotta in the opera house several years ago.

The pair had fought in West Virginia and repeated here. Later Perotta and Fay fought at Louisville.

About a year ago Fay left the middleweight ranks to enter the light-heavyweight division.

According to reports he and Genaro Panzratta the latter of Pittsburgh were enroute to Argentine.

Fay planned to seek a fight with Luis Firpo. During his career Fay took a decision from Paul Berlenbach.

The reserved tickets sell for $1.00 each. The admission to the game is 50 cents, and those desiring reserved seats may secure them for an additional 50 cents.

Beaver Falls yesterday ordered 700 tickets sent them, and it was indicated that well over a thousand fans of the Valley would follow the Tigers here Saturday. A special section of the field has been reserved for the Beaver Falls delegation.

Report Rickard Ready To Offer Dempsey Battle

Jack Dempsey May Fight Again If "Tex" Makes It Interesting Enough

RICKARD HURRIES HOME FROM SOUTH

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Tex Rickard is supposed to be coming into town from Florida today with an offer to Dempsey that will run so far into six figures that later they may have to add a seventh to take care of the golden overflow. It is the writer's understanding that Dempsey will be shown more money, or its equivalent, as a possible title contender than ever he got as champion and he always got what might be termed approximately enough. The Philadelphia fight with Tunney previously was the big killing of his career, more than $700,000 being taken for a long, steady ride.

The understanding now is that Rickard is prepared to lay a half million on the line and cut out John on the receipts in such a way that he might stand to make a cool million, provided his opponent looks the part of a live one.

Big-Hearted Tex

It is known that Rickard has called Dempsey on the long distance telephone, not once, but many times during his vacation in the South and of course, their conversation simply dealt in generalities. Rickard is like that. His abiding weakness is a desire to give the telephone company a break. Tub-hearted Tex, they call him.

Anyhow, it may be significant that the gentleman seems to have altered his viewpoint in two particulars since he dropped out of the public midst. After the Tunney-Heeney disaster, he spoke for her profits and better fights by making the muggs go in there here after on the basis of percentage—draw a crowd or take the consequences. In fact, he seemed to think that some of them would be well paid if their "take" was largely consequences. Now, the word is that he is fixing to go on a limb again with a guarantee. He wouldn't think of it for anybody except Dempsey.

Before he left, Rickard's story was that Dempsey was all over and done with. Rickard said as much to him many times! John undoubtedly had. He had said as much to everybody who would listen and even to those who wouldn't. He wasn't going to fight again. Dempsey said it. Rickard said it. Now, the latter goes all the way to Miami to take a running jump with the story that he expects to talk Dempsey into fighting again. Maybe the long distance telephone operator told him there was a chance that Dempsey would.

Five Intersectional Gridiron Games Will Be Played Saturday

Yale And Princeton Games Headline In East; Tech And Notre Dame To Meet

Pitt Panthers To Play Nebraska; New York University Meets Missouri

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—With five intersectional contests scheduled in addition to eight other sectional games that will be steeped in rivalry color and tradition, Eastern football reaches the water mark of the season this Saturday.

The Yale-Princeton contest at Princeton is the big game of the week. Yale triumphed last year, 14 to 6, and has won twenty-seven of these 31 historic battles. Princeton capturing fifteen and nine ending in ties.

Tigers Favored

Up until last Saturday Yale was favored to win this year. Princeton's only impressive performance was its 6 to 6 battle with Ohio State, and the Tigers lost cash when they were held to a scoreless tie by Virginia and barely eked out a 3 to 0 win over Cornell. But Yale is no longer a favorite because of the Blue's 6 to 0 defeat by Maryland last Saturday when Johnny Garvey, star back, suffered injuries which will keep him out of the all-important battle with the Tigers.

The other contests which will bring together bitter rivals are the Dartmouth-Cornell, Penn-Columbia, Syracuse-Colgate; Lafayette-Penn State, Bucknell-Washington and Jefferson, Georgetown-West Virginia and Harvard-Holy Cross games.

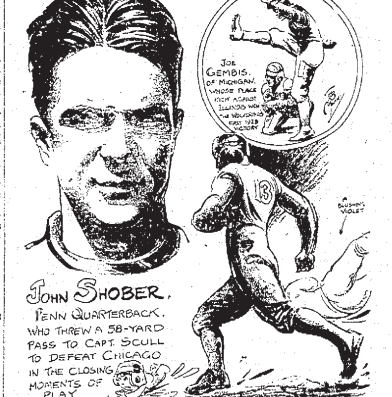
Cornell Seeks Revenge

Cornell is eager to avenge a long series of beatings by Dartmouth. The same goes for Columbia, which has downed Penn only three times since they first met fifty years ago, two of the winning teams being captained by the great Tom Thorp. Both Syracuse and Colgate have experienced disappointing seasons, but both will be playing like world-beaters when they renew their ancient rivalry on Saturday. Harvard still fears Holy Cross, as headlines screamed decades ago. The West Virginia Mountaineers with seven straight victories to their credit, are waiting in ambush for Georgetown. The Lafayette-Penn State and Bucknell-Washington and Jefferson games are Keystone State Classics.

Rivalry will not be lacking in the five intersectional battles. In 1926 Carnegie Tech ruined Notre Dame's championship hopes. Now Carnegie is a leading aspirant for title honors and the rejuvenated Hoosiers intend to show off the 1926 grudge at South Bend, where the Irish haven't tasted defeat since 1905.

New York University, remembering its past setbacks by Nebraska, goes into action at New York against Missouri, another member of the Big Six Conference. The Pittsburgh-Nebraska, Fordham-Detroit and Army-Carleton games round out the intersectional program.

November Heroes — By Fcg Murray



Each Saturday has its heroes and November 3 was no exception. Chisel the names of Johnny Shober of Pennsylvania, Ken Provincial of Georgetown and Joe Gembis of Michigan on the marble walls of the Football Hall of Fame. Whether or not they are the goats of November 10th they had their Day of Days on the third and made it a Day of Daze for their opponents.

Take Johnny Shober for instance. ("Yes just try and take him" says Penn.) In the final moments of the game with Chicago played in the Windy City and reminiscent in its spine-tingling thrills of the Chicago-Princeton game of 1922, Shober uncorked a long pass to Paul Scull who received the ball on Chicago's 18-yard line and ran unmolested to score the winning touchdown. Stagg's Maroons had tied the score less than a minute before and with less than two minutes to go, felt sure of a tie game. But they reckoned not on the good right arm of Johnny Shober whose 58-yard heave is the seventh longest completed forward pass for a score in the history of football.

Georgetown provided one of the major upsets of the weekend when it defeated the unbeaten New York university team 7 to 2 taking an intentional safety to safeguard their lead near the end of the game. Ken Strong of N. Y. U. was the pre-game hero. But Ken Provincial of Georgetown, got all of the cheers after the battle was over for he it was who picked up a N. Y. U. fumble and raced nearly 90 yards over the muddy turf for the only touchdown of the day.

As for Joe Gambis with one little place kick he gave Illinois its first defeat of the year in five starts and his own team, Michigan, its first victory of 1928.

There are Dobies and Dough-bees. There is Gil Dobie of Cornell, for instance whose coat is all green and covered with moss from weeping large tears over is football team; and then there are the Dough-bees of Georgia Tech who wear yellow jackets and win lots of green backs.

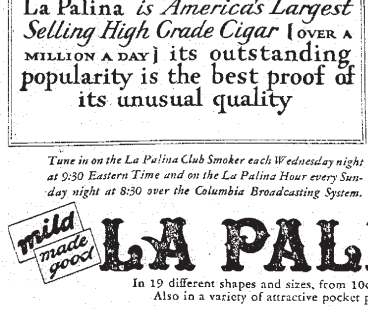
MEN WHO SMOKE AND GUARD THEIR HEALTH, SMOKE CIGARS

88% of the Principal Executives of the Radio Corporation of America are Cigar Smokers



As a result of a survey it has been ascertained that 88% of the principal executives of the Radio Corporation of America smoke cigars.

Men are cigar smokers for the taste and enjoyment there is in the cigar—not for the gratification of a nervous habit. One cigar is not lighted from the end of another. The day's end does not find cigar smokers high-strung, in an exhausted mental condition. They smoke slowly, leisurely, getting from each puff a full measure of pleasure—without penalty to nerves or throat.

Perhaps the basic reason for the great prevalence of throat troubles is the irritating action of hot burning smoke on the very sensitive membranes of the mouth and throat.

A prominent New York throat specialist is authority for the statement that:

"Cigar smoke is cool, because the tobacco burns slowly and the smoke is filtered and cooled as it is drawn through the cigar itself." Make this test for a week—smoke cigars exclusively and you will find yourself feeling better, with no cough or throat irritation, improved nerves, increased vitality and less of that tired feeling. To really rest cigars, with justice to yourself and to cigars, we suggest the rest be made with La Palinas.
